

Syllabus of ARCH202 - Architectural Design Studio II

Department: Architecture & Semester: 2018-2019 Fall

Instructor: Dr. Harun Ekinoglu, Dr. Julide E. Erdinc

Credits: 8: 6 (studio)+2 (theoretical)

Catalog Description:

Introduction to principles and concepts of architectural design; case study and analysis; small-scaled projects on specific design problems. Development of skills in architectural representation.

Prerequisite(s): ARCH201

Assessment Methods:

	Type	Label	Count	Total Contribution
1	Final		1	40
2	Pre-jury		1	20
2	Research and presentations		2	20
3	Midterm: Sketch exam		1	10
4	In-class participation		1	10

Minimum Requirements to Qualify for the Final Exam:

Students need to have participated into the initial 2 phases of project assessments (mid-term sketching exam and pre-jury) to be able to continue onto the final one

Course Learning Outcomes:

Course Learning Outcome	Assessment
Reading the neighborhood	Research and presentations
Produce design solutions for small-scaled projects considering neighborhood culture, everyday needs and problems, potentials to unearth through developing design scenarios	Projects Midterm:Drawing In-class participation Pre-Jury & Final Jury
Demonstrate proficiency in graphic communication	Projects Research and presentations Midterm:Drawing Pre-Jury & Final Jury

Weekly Syllabus:

1. Introduction to the studio, Introduction of Project II
2. Site visit : Tophane neighborhood in Beyoğlu District of Istanbul
3. Individual and group presentations of the site analysis
4. Individual and group presentations of the site analysis
5. Submission and evaluation of the site analysis
6. Studio studies on Project II
7. Studio studies on Project II
8. Studio studies on Project II and mid term sketching exam
9. Studio studies on Project II
10. Studio studies on Project II and pre-jury
11. Studio studies on Project II
12. Studio studies on Project II
13. Studio studies on Project II
14. Studio studies on Project II and final preparations for the final jury
15. Final jury